

APA 7th - scholarly journal article

For electronic articles include the DOI number ( Digital Object Identifier ) if available. The format for a doi is: <https://doi.org/10.1080/1057356030207>

If there is no DOI use the web address (url) to the journal article.

Note: If the journal article is from a database (e.g., Proquest or Ebsco), and doesn't have a doi, do not include the URL but reference as a print article.

If there is no year of publication use the abbreviation (n.d.) for no date.

In-text citation

When you use another person's ideas or words in your text include the author's name and publication date in brackets (Parenthetical Citation).

If you use the author's name as part of a sentence, include the date of publication in brackets (Narrative Citation).

- ... the economic cost of motor vehicle accidents caused by sleepiness (Leger, 1994). Sleep deprivation, according to Leger (1994), also leads to higher rates of work-related injuries.

Note: If you use a Parenthetical Citation the first time, followed by a Narrative Citation, you need to repeat the date.

- In a recent study, Leger (1994) explored the economic cost of sleepiness in accidents. Leger further claims that sleep deprivation leads to higher work-related injuries.

Note: If you use a Narrative Citation the first time, followed by another Narrative Citation, you can omit the date. But, if you use a Parenthetical Citation the next time you need to include the date.

Use '&' between the authors' surnames when they are enclosed within brackets. Use 'and' when they form part of the sentence.

... carpal tunnel syndrome is significantly higher in diabetic patients (Mauermann & Watson, 2017). Mauermann and Watson (2017) noted that it was a risk factor for both type 1 and 2 diabetics.

Note: If you use a Parenthetical Citation the first time, followed by a Narrative Citation, you need to repeat the date.

Mauermann and Watson (2017) found that the use of D5W for carpal tunnel syndrome significantly reduced the level of pain. Mauermann and Watson also noted a reduction in patient's disability scores.

Note: If you use a Narrative Citation the first time, followed by another Narrative Citation, you can omit the date. But, if you use a Parenthetical Citation the next time you need to include the date.

Cite only the surname of the first author followed by 'et al.'

... global environmental events impacted on the evolution of vascular plant patterns (Anderson et al., 1999). Anderson et al. (1999) discovered a clear linking between vascular plant-bearing formations and standard geological time-scale.

Note: If you use a Parenthetical Citation the first time, followed by a Narrative Citation, you need to repeat the date.

Anderson et al. (1999) discussed the connection of plants changing the ecosystems. Though Anderson et al. acknowledged that the dominant gymnosperm orders are endemic to the Gondwana Kingdom.

Note: If you use a Narrative Citation the first time, followed by another Narrative Citation, you can omit the date. But, if you use a Parenthetical Citation the next time you need to include the date.

Use the the name of the group as it appears in your reference list. However, the Group name can be abbreviated. The first time cite the full name with the abbreviation. Subsequently only use the abbreviation. If the reader could be confused by the abbreviation use the full group name each time.

... the effectiveness of zidovudine in the prevention of human immunodeficiency virus transmission (HIV) from mothers to babies (Centers for Disease Control and Prevention [CDC], 1994).

Subsequently cite the name of the group in the abbreviated form.

- CDC (1994) reported that each year about 7000 HIV-infected women give birth and of those 35% have HIV-infected babies.

OR

United Nations Development Programme (UNDP, 1984) provides assistance to developing countries to help improve their socioeconomic conditions.

Subsequently cite the name of the group in the abbreviated form.

UNDP (1984) help to build self-reliance via the financing of technical co-operation and other pre-investment undertakings.

For the title of the article with no author use Title Case with double quotation marks. For a long title use only the first few words.

Companies are more successful with leaders whose skills fit the particular challenges of the job ("When Hiring Execs," 2017).

The article "When Hiring Execs" (2017) suggests that you ascertain personality attributes, skills and appropriate experiences of executives as leaders before hiring.

Note: In the reference list use Sentence case i.e. only capitalise the first word of the title, first word of a subtitle or first word after a colon, plus proper nouns.

Example:

When hiring execs, context matters most. (2017). Harvard Business Review, 95 (5), 20-22.
